As we begin the second week of Lent, we encounter Abram moving to a new place, the disciples struggling to understand Jesus, and the early Christians trying to figure out how to live the Gospel. If our own understanding about who Jesus is remains a struggle with ongoing questions, let us not be discouraged. If our hearts are open, we can trust that there will be people and experiences to help us along the way.

Christ Jesus . . . destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.
- 2 Timothy 1:10b

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is once again time for us to enter into the spiritual self-discipline of holy Lent. The thought of self-discipline can leave us feeling gloomy, especially if we see it as punishment. However, Jesus directs his disciples not to appear gloomy as they engage in prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. He instead invites us to look forward to the blessings that accompany our acts of penance and charity.

The key blessing we seek each Lent is the ability to root out sin from our lives. Sin causes us to turn our gaze inward, looking only at ourselves. The discipline of Lent helps us to look outside of ourselves, to recognize what a treasure we possess in our relationship with Christ, with our family, and with those around us. They are all a gift from God, for which we need to be thankful, so that we will never take them for granted.

Therefore, let us pray for one another, that sin will not blind us to the call and the example of the Word of God during this Lenten season. Only He can show us the path leading to true peace. With prayerful wishes for a blessed Lent, I am Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend John R. Gaydos
Bishop of Jefferson City

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Es nuevamente el tiempo para que entremos en una autodisciplina espiritual en la santa Cuaresma. El pensar en autodisciplina nos puede hacer sentir melancólicos, especialmente si lo vemos como un castigo. Sin embargo, Jesús instruye a sus discípulos a no parecer melancólicos cuando se adentran en la oración, el ayuno y a dar limosnas. Por el contrario nos invita a buscar las bendiciones que acompañan nuestros actos de penitencia y de caridad.

La bendición clave que buscamos cada Cuaresma es el poder sacar de nuestras vidas el pecado desde la raíz. El pecado nos hace que miremos solamente hacia adentro, mirándonos solamente a nosotros mismos. La disciplina de la Cuaresma nos ayuda a ver hacia afuera de nosotros mismos para reconocer el gran tesoro que tenemos en nuestra relación con Cristo, con nuestra familia y con aquellos que nos rodean. Todos éstos son regalos de Dios por los cuales debemos estar agradecidos para que nunca los demos por hecho.

Por lo tanto, oremos unos por los otros para que el pecado no nos ciegue al llamado y al ejemplo de la Palabra de Dios durante esta temporada de Cuaresma. Solamente Él puede mostrarnos el camino a la paz verdadera. Con mis deseos en la oración por una Cuaresma llena de bendiciones, Tanques!

Atentamente, en Cristo, Reverendísimo John R. Gaydos, Obispo de Jefferson City

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Blessed Sacrament was not reserved in church buildings in the first centuries of the church. In those early years, of course, people met in borrowed "house churches," gathering on the Lord's Day for community, apostolic teaching, the breaking of the bread, and the prayers, as Acts of the Apostles tells us. Dispersed, people went their way into the workaday world until the next assembly. Weighing down their hearts was the absence of brothers and sisters, not only the sick, but those imprisoned for the faith. No wonder they developed a way of extending the food of the Holy Table to them.

Forty years ago, every altar boy in training heard about Saint Tarcisius. He was a twelve-year-old boy at the time of intense persecution in fourth-century Rome. His community had begun to convey the consecrated bread from their Eucharist to those condemned to death or awaiting trial. Normally deacons did this, but on one occasion, it was necessary to send the boy to bear the holy mysteries to the prison. The legend says that he was an athlete, and was detained on the way by some playmates who wanted him to join in their game. When he refused, they demanded to know what he was carrying. The situation went from bad to worse, and he was badly beaten and died of his injuries. A hundred years later, a pope called him a second St. Stephen. In the nineteenth century, Cardinal Nicholas Wiseman of England wrote a novel in which he expanded the story and popularized it. By then, no one seemed to notice that this twelve-year-old was actually touching and ministering the Eucharist, unthinkable until recently. Scholars say the story rings true: the first reason for setting some Eucharistic bread aside was not adoration, but Communion of the sick. -Rev. James Field, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.
