Today's readings remind us that God expects us to be resourceful people who are wise and alert. We are not to live out of fear, but out of a deeper "fear of the Lord." And we are challenged to be enterprising, not in terms of personal gain but by using what we have been given for the growth of the kingdom.

STEWARDSHIP..

In today's Gospel, Jesus delivers the parable of the talents; using the example of money rather than abilities or skills. It's a story about investments, risks and returns. Stewards understand that God has given them an abundance of spiritual gifts. They know God doesn't want them to simply receive these blessings and bury them in fear, but to multiply them; to use these gifts to serve Him and others; to spread Christ's Good News; to go and make disciples of others. Good stewards invest what God has given them in the service of others and are prepared to render an account when the Lord returns. Reflect this week on how you are returning your own God-given gifts back to God with increase.

MITTEN TREE... Holy Family Parish will again provide gifts to the children in Early Head Start and Pre-school programs. Tags will be on the tree the weekend of November 29-30. Take a tag and purchase mittens or gloves and a small toy or game for the child. Wrap your gift and return it to the tree with the tag attached (so we know if its for a boy or girl) RETURN IT THE FOLLOWING WEEKEND, Dec.6-7.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ: The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has come to the aid of communities nationwide for over 40 years in an effort to eradicate poverty. During World Youth Day, July 25, 2013, Pope Francis told us to “never tire of working for a more just world, marked by greater solidarity.” CCHD puts these words into action by funding housing, education, the development of job opportunities and lifting up and helping solve the needs of poor and low-income communities all across the nation.

Projects supported by CCHD work to build healthy, sustainable futures for communities. Ten years ago, Boston’s Haley House began offering bakery training at the request of a few regular guests at the soup kitchen. Experiencing a tremendous demand, Haley House created a six-month course that includes customer relations and basic business principles. Haley House currently has 70 trainees who have completed the program and are now employed in the Boston area.

This Collection is the primary source of funding for CCHD’s anti-poverty grants and education programs. Collection funds offer new hope each year to those living in poverty throughout the United States. And remember, 25 percent of the Collection’s proceeds stays here in our Diocese to fight poverty in our communities and defend the dignity of our neighbors. Help us defend human dignity and show Christ’s charity to those in need.

With the 25 percent of the Collection we keep in our Diocese, we funded three important local projects. The Central Missouri Foster Care & Adoptive Association (CMFCAA) received funding for its Adoptive Parent Network (APN) program and for its Tuesday Night Training program. CMFCAA is the only organization in central Missouri that provides post-adoption services to families. The Adoptive Parent Network program provides professional trainers in the areas of child trauma, grief, attachment, bonding, adoptive family respite services, mental health, insurance coverage, and renegotiating adoption contacts. The Tuesday Night Training program provides monthly professional parent training for foster care and families that have adopted through the foster care system, as well as those resource providers who care for abused and neglected children. These programs serve some of the poorest and most vulnerable children in our state.

The other important work of local CCHD in our Diocese is the Rural Community Workers’ Alliance (RCWA) based in Milan, Missouri. The RCWA works with the immigrant and low-wage worker community in northern Missouri. The program seeks to secure improved community health systems and services, and to assure workplace safety for immigrant and refugee food sector workers and their families.

For more information about the Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development and the groups it funds, please visit www.povertyusa.org, or contact the local Diocesan Director at bross@ccnmo.org, 573/635-7719. Sincerely yours in Christ, Most Reverend John R. Gaydos
