September 6, 2015

My friends, humanity's hope has always been that the future will be free of division, pain, illness and suffering. Healing may not always come when and how we wish it, but we are assured today that God's healing is not limited to certain groups or a privileged few. Let us all be open to hearing God's word, and to the promise of God's kingdom, where all will be healed.

23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs to the kingdom?

- James 2:5

SCHOOL NEWS... Happy Labor Day!! May the work of our hands be a prayer of gratitude for all we have been given. Today the work of our hands rest (hopefully) as we enjoy the last vestiges of summer!

Students have early dismissal on Friday, September 11 at 1:00 p.m. Please note that someone must be at school at 1:00 p.m. to pick-up your child/ren. Teachers have an afternoon of in-service.

Our Holy Family's Home & School Association is beginning a fundraiser for the school called "Genevieve's." You may have seen some of their many selections of candy, wrapping paper, candles and home decorations. Students will be selling their products between September 4 - 18. We hope you will welcome our students with an opportunity to show you the extensive catalogue. Plan ahead for birthday's, holidays, anniversaries, etc. Call school (221-0456) to see a catalogue.

INTERESTED IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

Do you know anyone who is interested in becoming Catholic? Do you come to church with your Catholic spouse/friend and feel a desire to belong, too? Are you an adult who has never received the Sacrament of Confirmation? If so, perhaps the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) process is for you or the person you have in mind. The RCIA sessions will begin Thurs., Sept. 17th, 7 p.m. in the Parish Center (upstairs). If you are interested or need more information call Sister Mary at 221-1078.

My family and I would like to thank all the caring people in our parish for their thoughts and prayers for us and our husband, father, brother, grandfather and great-grandfather, Deacon Gene Pierceall. To the Bishop, Father Mike, Priests and Deacons who were able to be here and take part in the beautiful liturgy, the choir, the CCW for the delicious dinner, the people who sent food, masses and memorials, to Jim O'Donnell and his staff for their thoughtful memories of his "barbering" days - we can only repeat "Thank You!"

The doctors and nurses of the Hannibal Regional Hospital and the Hannibal Clinic took excellent care of him and we extend our appreciation to them.

We will miss him greatly but know how happy and joyful he is now and that we will see him again.

Sincerely, Bev Pierceall

CCW "WINE & CHEESE" PARTY MEETING

Holy Family Council of Catholic Women will have their annual "Wine & Cheese" party meeting on Monday, September 14, 2015 at 6:30 p.m. at the Parish Center. The Rosary will be held at 6:00 p.m. before the meeting. The hostesses for the meeting will be: Carol Harvey, Toni Hannant, Denise Fogle and Sister Mary. All women of the parish are welcome and encouraged to attend!

STEWARDSHIP COUNCIL NEWS Stewardship Council is currently working to help organize the Parish Picnic on Oct. 4th. Mass will be at 11:00am at the KC grounds, with lunch to follow. We are planning a few new activities this year. Our parish ministries/ committees will be present to share information about the work that they do in the parish and community. We want everyone to know more about all our parish does to serve others and find where you can best use your talents and time. This year there will be the first opportunity for you to show us your talent. We will host "Holy Family's Got Talent". The competition is open to all ages, whether you sing or dance or do comedy or magic, we want to see what you can do. Registration forms are on the tables at church. Of course there will be prizes and adult beverages. Children's activities will be organized by our youth ministries. Mark the date and plan to attend this wonderful time of fellowship.

Stewardship is working to prepare a Ministry booklet to identify the activities of the parish where volunteer opportunities are identified. This year in November we will be asking for each person to complete a Time & Talent form on Commitment Sunday. If you have not been active in Ministry work here at Holy Family we hope you will prayerfully consider participation now. We hear a lot about tithing too, now is the time to evaluate how you spend God's treasure and make that commitment in Nov to return God's gift in abundance.

The Stewardship Council meets the third Thursday each month at the Parish Conference Room at 6:30 pm. Our meetings are open to all and we encourage your participation. Being a good steward is God's plan for us. Realizing all that God has given to us we are responsible for using these gifts fully to show our love for God in our everyday life. DeAnne Wickens, Steward Director

DID YOU RSVP for the 150 YEARS OF CATHOLIC EDUCATION

DINNER? The dinner will be immediately following the 5:30 p.m. Mass on Saturday, September 19th. We hope to see everyone there. Email: miller@myhollyfamily.com if you plan to attend this special celebration. THANK YOU!!!

Revelations at the Beach by Friar Jeremy Harrington, O.F.M. It was an idyllic scene. It could have been an Impressionist's painting of families vacationing at the beach: August sun, white sand, gentle surf of the Gulf, blue sky, fathers building sand castles with their daughters, mothers lathering their sons with lotion, people of all ages walking the beach. It was peaceful and serene. In the evening, grown-ups in beach chairs faced the west to watch the sun go down. When there are clouds, the sunset seems to span the Gulf of Mexico in a spectacular array of colors.

Looking at this scene, I realized that, even though I did not know the vacationers on the beach, I was connected with them. Each of us is a child of God, the Creator who had separated dry land from the waters, made the sun and the sky, and brought beauty to the formless wasteland. Our Father wanted us to enjoy his gift of the world and to live in harmony. "Let everything that has breath give praise to the Lord" (Psalm 150). I was moved by the wonder. I thought of St. Francis of Assisi seeing each person as his sister or brother, praising God for Brother Sun and Sister Lark.

One Family I remembered from Conjectures of a Guilty Bystander the famous revelation of Thomas Merton at the corner of Fourth and Walnut in Louisville in 1958: "I was suddenly overwhelmed with the realization that I loved all those people, that they were mine and I theirs, that we could not be alien to one another even though we were total strangers. And if only everybody could realize this! But it cannot be explained. There is no way of telling people that they are all walking around shining like the sun."

I know I was only seeing a snapshot that day. It was real, but not the whole picture. I was at the beach because my sister-in-law let me use her condo for a week. Others in our society are not that fortunate: seniors who can't afford their bills, hungry children during the summer months without school lunches, workers who do not get a vacation, refugee families from Iraq or Syria living in stark poverty.

If from my spot in the shade I could see all the people there as my sisters and brothers, how would I see them when I left the beach? There I was relaxed with leisure time to pray, read, and think. Would I be patient with the driver who cut me off in traffic, the shopper at the supermarket who couldn't find her credit card? Would I greet and express my gratitude to my sisters and brothers collecting the trash? They are all children of God. As it reads in Psalm 8: "O Lord, our Lord, how awesome is your name through all the earth!" e-spirations@franciscanmedia.org, 2015
