Today's readings post the question: Who acts on God's behalf? The answer is: Whoever God chooses. Today's readings reveal that God is far more inclusive than we are. The Israelites, and Jesus' followers, resented those deemed unworthy to prophesy or heal. And their complaints and jealousy were rebuked. "Whoever is not against us is for us," says Jesus. God can and does act through people we wouldn't choose. How often do we deny the good they do?

of Christ

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul;
the decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple. - Psalm 19:8*

POPE FRANCIS...WELCOME TO THE UNITED STATES! WE LOVE YOU. YOU CHALLENGE AND INSPIRE US TO BE OUR BETTER CHRISTIAN SELVES IN OUR FAMILIES AND OUR INDIVIDUAL LIVES.

SCHOOL NOTES... I want to say a big "THANK YOU" to everyone who helped make our 150th anniversary so memorable. Saturday's 5:30 p.m. Mass with Bishop Gaydos was so simple yet so beautiful!! Thank you to Father Mike, CCW members, alumni, our teachers, students and their parents who made a special effort to come so they could participate in this historic event of God's blessings to us. We had a full house celebrating God's choicest gifts to us as a faith community with a legacy given to us by many of our faithful grandparents, great and great-great grandparents and relatives.

A special thank you to Jim O'Donnell for putting together the photo memories for us. Everyone enjoyed this history in pictures and we are so grateful for the time you spent showing our great heritage.

We are now the ones in line to continue the great work of passing on our faith to the next generations. We had 7 School Sisters Notre Dame who came to celebrate with us. Every one of them is so grateful for their time in Hannibal. The children's participation in the two choirs shows how special our school is. You helped make our celebration so festive with song.

If you missed the turkey dinner it cannot be duplicated. Thank you Debbie Pierceall, Wendy Fenton, and Mary Kaszynski and many others for your delicious meal. Praise God for all that God has done for us!! - Sister Betty

WE ASK ETERNAL REST O LORD FOR THE SOULS OF: Larry Friedersdorf, of our parish
Wilma Kapfer, mother of John Kapfer, of our parish

Stewardship Thoughts

- "Set your stakes on great ideals, the ideals that enlarge the heart, the ideals of service that make your talents fruitful. Life is not given to us to be jealously guarded for ourselves, but it is given to us so that we may give it in turn." Pope Francis
 - "Glorify God and bear Him in your body, that the life of Jesus may be manifest in you." Archbishop Robert Carlson
 - "Silence is the root of our union with God and with one another. In silence, we are filled with the energy of God Himself that makes us do all things in joy. The more we receive in silent prayer, the more we can give in our active life." Blessed Teresa of Calcutta
 - "Acquire interior peace and a multitude will find its salvation through you." St. Seraphim of Sarov
 - "Let us run to accompany the Lord as He hastens toward His Passion, not by covering His path with palms, but by being humble and by trying to live as He would wish." St. David of Crete
 - "One of the problems with religion is that it can remain too theoretical. We need to make it concrete. 'Love thy neighbor' has become a concrete action like 'I will hold the door open for a stranger' or 'I will donate food to my St. Vincent de Paul society.'" Fr. Tom Pastorius
 - "God's endings have a way of turning into surprising new beginnings." Scripture Union USA
- "Stewardship calls us to give from our 'first fruits'. Although not stated, there is an implication that by giving of the first fruits, a gift, for example the loaves and fishes, may have more power and force. God can take any gift and multiply it many times over." Catholic Stewardship Consultants
