November 15, 2015

Today's readings hold a poetic language from another time that describes the age to come. As our liturgical year draws to a close, we ponder the imagery of people who are waiting for Christ. This cycle of waiting and fulfillment is always fresh for us. It happens in our daily lives, in our family's generations and in our spiritual lives. People have long been looking for God's presence, and we still look today. What do you look for?

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. - Mark 13:31

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

During his visit to Brazil, Pope Francis said, "The measure of the greatness of a society is found in the way it treats those most in need" (World Youth Day, Address, July 25, 2013). With these words, Pope Francis continues to bring our attention back to the poor and our responsibility toward them. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) responds directly to this call by addressing the root causes of poverty in the United States.

Founded in 2004, the group Ex-Prisoners and Prisoners Organizing for Community Advancement (EPOCA) works to change the future for men and women returning to society after incarceration. Since its inception, EPOCA has steadily grown in membership, influence, and vision. Today, it forms a diverse team of 226 members working with thousands of allies every day to win legislative victories that improve the lives of families around the country.

In the past year our Diocese funded four CCHD projects. The Kids in Motion project provides community service and life success training and education to low-income, at-risk youth in the Hannibal area that helps young people learn skills and develop their potential for future job and community success. Other CCHD funded groups will be able to provide English language skills to immigrants and refugees in central Missouri, help homeless people get a toe-hold back into a normal life, and another funded project will help immigrant workers defend their dignity in the work place and help them gain the skills and knowledge necessary to effectively advocate for their health and human rights.

This collection is the primary source of funding for CCHD's anti-poverty grants and education programs, like the grant that supports EPOCA and our locally-funded projects. Funding from the collection offers new hope every year to those living in poverty throughout the United States. Importantly, 25 percent of the collection's proceeds stay here in our Diocese to fight poverty in our community and defend the dignity of our neighbors. Help us defend human dignity and show Christ's charity to those in need.

For more information about the collection for CCHD and the groups it funds, please visit www.povertyusa.org, or Barbara Ross at bross@cccmmo.org

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John R. Gaydos

Bishop of Jefferson City

One of the Christmas traditions for the Coons family has been to share a Christmas light display with the community. As our family has grown and are beginning to create their own family traditions, this will be our last Christmas light display. We look forward to seeing all of you this year!

Thanks for your support for the past 30 years and for sharing in the many memories and traditions that have been made. We wish you a VERY Merry Christmas and a blessed and Happy New Year!

"Loving God, I come to you in thanksgiving, knowing all that I am and all that I have is a gift from you. In faith and love help me to do your will.

I am listening Lord -- speak your words into the depth of my soul, that I may hear you clearly. I offer to you this day all the facets of my life whether it be at home, at work or at school -- to be patient, to be merciful, to be generous: to be holy.

Give me the wisdom and the insight to understand your will for me and the fervor to carry out my good intentions. I offer my gifts of time, talent and possessions to you as a true act of faith, to reflect my love for you and my neighbor. Help me to reach out to others as you my God have reached out to me. Amen."

K OF C NEWS... Knights meeting 11-23 - at 6:30pm

PARISH COUNCIL ABBREVIATED MINUTES...

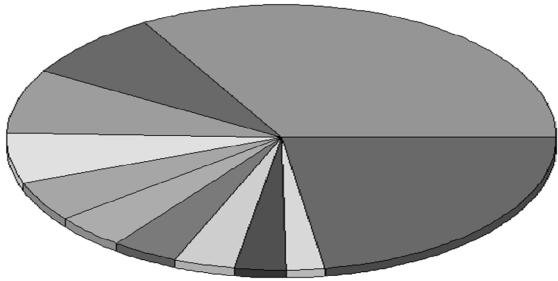

Holy Family Parish Council met October 20 to review our successes and discuss our needs. Our new council members include Rich Fogle, Brent Massie, Eric Hagan, and Maria Clark as our HS representative.

Stewardship is a big concern, and it seems as if not everyone quite understands what it means or the purpose for all the talks! Charlie and Judy Spratt will continue to seek volunteers to share their stewardship witness talks at upcoming Masses over the next several weeks.

Fr. Mike has organized a Century Club of those who will make a three year commitment to tithe at or above their current level of giving. Stewardship booklets and prayer cards with our new slogan "Holy Family, it's not just our name but who we are!" will be given out soon. Time and Talent sign up will be the weekend of November 14-15.

It was a bit disappointing that few of the ministry booths were visited during the picnic, although the picnic itself was successful. We will also be looking for host families to welcome the Young Catholics Musicians coming from St Louis the second weekend in January. Next Meeting - Wed., Nov. 18th@6:30pm
