February 14, 2016

Making a commitment is neither easy or simple. We have second thoughts and doubts, temptations to go back on the choices we've made. Jesus struggled to know and accept his calling during his 40 days in the desert after his baptism. The Lenten season is our time for us to reflect on our own baptismal calling and ask for the courage to complete it.

FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT

The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart. - Romans 10:8

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The season of Lent is a special time within the Church year when the liturgy causes us to experience sorrow for our sins, and with the help of God's grace, to undergo a conversion of heart. This focus is particularly accentuated this year, as we turn our thoughts to the Jubilee Year of Mercy and its motto: Merciful like the Father.

On the Fourth Sunday of Lent, we will hear the parable of the prodigal son from the Gospel according to Luke (cf. Lk 15: 1-32). Despite the younger son's terrible choices, his father longs for the opportunity to show his unending love for his wayward son. Pope Francis has remarked on how this parable reveals the power of God's mercy, which is a force capable of overcoming even the most grievous sins we commit. It helps us to understand that the death freely accepted by Christ on the Cross is not a sign of weakness, but a manifestation of omnipotence, because His power is perfectly displayed in the act of forgiving sins.

Let each of us, then, open the door of our heart through our Lenten practices of prayer and self-denial, just as we opened the Holy Doors of Mercy, to encounter the powerful, healing grace of God. Let us resolve to be transformed into effective witnesses of the Father's enduring compassion, and so practice the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

With my best wishes and personal regards,
I am Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend John R. Gaydos
Bishop of Jefferson City

LENT... Lent is a season of preparation; we are called to reflect on the Cross of Christ. We are called to recognize the challenges of today, and "step up to the plate," working to be instruments of changes needed in our world.

God is love, mercy, and forgiveness. He is always ready to receive us - if only we are willing! The Gospels of Luke and John will show us that there was confusion and division in the community - those who believed and those who didn't at the time of Jesus, and even today.

As you journey on your Lenten retreat, focusing on prayer, fasting and almsgiving, where do you choose to put yourself? In fear? In confusion? In the hands of God?

A Prayer of Offering by the Sick for the Unborn

God of love and consolation,

You always draw us closer to yourself.

You ask us to trust you

And you make us always more like Jesus your Son.

Through his cross,

You give our human suffering

Divine meaning and purpose.

I pray today for all my brothers and sisters,

And especially for those most in need,

The children living in their mothers' womb.

Father, I offer my sufferings for them,

In union with the sufferings of Jesus.

Through my weakness, may they be protected,

Through my pain, may they be safe,

Through my loneliness, may they know the joy of life.

Thank You Thanks to everyone for your gifts to the "Souper Bowl of Caring." We raised $880.08 for the needy in our church and community! - Sr. Mary

OPERATION RICE BOWL

Holy Family is participating the Operation Rice Bowl Lenten program. This faith-in-action program will help you experience Lenten spirituality by living in solidarity with people in need around the world.

As we, the global Church, continue our prayerful walk through this Holy Year of Mercy, it is especially appropriate to come together in prayer as a family this Lent, reflecting on how we can live this call to mercy more abundantly.

As a family or individual, read stories of hope and daily reflections to inspire your Lenten journey and motivate your Lenten giving. The Rediscover Jesus book is a good reflection providing spiritual wisdom and practical insights into renewing your life in Christ.

Visit crsricebowl.org to watch videos of the people and communities whose lives your Lenten gifts are changing through CRS Rice Bowl. This week CRS Rice Bowl begins in Colombia, where coffee beans are changing lives! What actions can we take this Lent to change lives - at home and around the world?

CRS Rice Bowl has a daily Lenten app...download it for iPhone or Android devices and get daily Lenten reflections right on your phone.

Rice bags will be in the pews beginning this weekend for your donations to Operation Rice Bowl. 75% of this collection is sent to Catholic Relief Services for the poor overseas and 25% remains in our parish to assist those in need in our parish and community.

"I have often thought about how the Church might make clear its mission of being a witness to mercy. It is a journey that begins with a spiritual conversion." - Pope Francis

SUNDAY REFLECTION:

Week 1: February 14

Deuteronomy 26:1-11; Romans 10:8b-13; Luke 4:1-13

Option for the Poor

Jesus tells us to care for those who are most in need in the world. He reminds us of our Christian duty to give a voice to those who go unheard and to help those who are most vulnerable.

- We hear in Deuteronomy, "We cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors, and the LORD heard our cry and saw our affliction, our toll and our oppression."

If God hears the cries of the poor, how should we interact with those who are poor, oppressed and marginalized?

- Paul calls us to put our faith in God, trusting that in doing so, God will act. Jesus shows us what that looks like by resisting temptation in the desert and living those 40 days in trust.

Where in our lives are we called to trust God more explicitly this Lent?

- This week, CRS Rice Bowl features a family from Colombia who, forced to flee their home because of a conflict, experiences firsthand what it means to be aliens in a foreign place, left to rely on the fruits of the land. What initially appears frightening and lonely becomes the stepping stone to new opportunity and community.

How do I welcome the stranger in my daily life? Do I offer opportunity and community, or do I turn my back on my neighbor?

JESUS AND THE DEVIL

The devil tempted Jesus by quoting scripture, as today's Gospel reminds us. Try a self-serving miracle. Try selling out. Try dazzling the audience; people are gullible, after all. Try all these easy ways. The tempter tries to urge Jesus onto the slippery slope, attempts the old soft-soap, the snake-oil solutions that are always readily at hand. The devil knows better, but is powerless to do better, much less be better. The devil is evil personified, who senses in Jesus the stronger, truly attractive presence of holiness. Evil is exposed and engaged, we are reminded in this Sunday's Gospel. Evil knows the jig is up. The undoing of lies begins with Jesus, who takes up the work of soul-healing and world-healing. This Lent, the Church invites us to enter into this renewing, re-creative work and be made whole again.
