Jesus has mercy on the woman accused of adultery. Those who judge her are confronted with their own need for forgiveness, and she who has been shown mercy is challenged to live out the new thing God is doing on her behalf. Where mercy abounds, all kinds of new things can happen.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Today marks the beginning of what used to be called Passiontide, the final two weeks of Lent, when the Passion of the Lord was read as well on Palm Sunday. Since the calendar's revision in 1969, Passiontide has become synonymous with Holy Week, beginning with Palm Sunday.

God has power over death. The power of God the Father saves us from death through Jesus Christ, and Jesus has power over all that threatens to separate us from God. Focus now on the wonders of God in the past, and all that He is doing now, as we wait for the new life given to us in the Resurrection of Jesus.

Are we willing, as Paul was, to let go of the past and keep our eyes on the future?

EASTER FLOWERS IN MEMORY... Forms for Easter Flowers in Memory of your loved ones are at the entrances to church. Please return the form with your $10 donation to the parish office by Tuesday, March 15 in order for the name to be in our Easter bulletin. Thank you!

PRAYER IN DEFENSE OF MARRIAGE

God our Father, we give you thanks for the gift of marriage: the bond of life and love,
and the font of the family.

The love of husband and wife enriches your Church with children,
fills the world with a multitude of spiritual fruitfulness and service,
and is the sign of the love of your Son, Jesus Christ, for his Church.

The grace of Jesus flowed forth at Cana at the request of the Blessed Mother. May your Son, through the intercession of Mary, pour out upon us
a new measure of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit as we join with all people of good will
to promote and protect the unique beauty of marriage.

May your Holy Spirit enlighten our society
to treasure the heroic love of husband and wife,
and guide our leaders to sustain and protect the singular place of mothers and fathers
in the lives of their children.

Father, we ask that our prayers
be joined to those of the Virgin Mary,
that your Word may transform our service
so as to safeguard the incomparable splendor of marriage.

We ask all these things through Christ our Lord, Amen. Saints Joachim and Anne, pray for us.

STRAIGHT LINES "God writes straight with crooked lines," the saying goes. The power of Paul's testimony that everything is junk but knowledge of Jesus and the power of his resurrection is a straight enough message. And, God knows, Paul had a crooked journey before his blinding insight straight from God. Through Isaiah, God reminds us all that the past great works were as nothing compared to the new creation. "Can't you see it?" we are asked, as if we are still wandering along our crooked lines. And there is no straighter line than that between the woman whose misery is intense and the God whose mercy in Jesus is deeper and more acute. You just can't beat this kind of good news.
