April 24, 2016

The Acts of the Apostles tell of the growth of the early church, which was not without struggle, suffering and martyrdom. At the heart of the story is the call of mutual, life-giving love. Revelation promises a new heaven, a new earth, a new order in which God will wipe away all tears.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race.

- Revelation 21:3

TRUE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY

Can you imagine a world such as the one put before us in today's scripture readings? Communities of believers everywhere would support and encourage one another and be identified as Christians by the way they love each other. It would be a world with no tears, no death and mourning, no crying out in pain. "Behold, I make all things new," we hear the Son of God say in the second reading from the book of Revelation (21:5).

Is this world of John's vision only imaginary? Are these faithful followers for whom Jesus prayed only a savior's dream? Today they are put before us as a worthy goal. How much closer can we come to this vision of a true Christian community in our lives today? Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.
