Being a disciple is not for the faint of heart or half-committed. Jesus is clear about requiring detachment - from people and things. We have heard this before in the Gospel. The Gospel makes clear what the demands are. It's up to us to search our own hearts honestly and trust that we will not be left to walk the path alone.

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days. - Psalm 90:14

INVITED

The Good News is that we have all been invited - invited to the Kingdom, invited to be disciples. It's a life-changing invitation, and like so many other such invitations, it requires a great deal of deliberation and discernment. Whether we choose marriage, ordination, single life, or community life, we know the serious planning and consideration that accompany these profound decisions. Like the tower-builder in the Gospel, we have weighed both the monetary and emotional cost. We have pondered and planned our lives in the direction to which we believe God has called us. And while we pray for guidance and acceptance of God's will, we often fail to understand so much. Like Solomon, we turn to God for wisdom and counsel in our life-changing decisions.

Those who the Community has designated to serve as catechists will be asked to stand for a blessing. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel.
