My friends, we can never say too much about God's mercy, especially toward those who recognize their own faults and repent. When have we realized our need for mercy and asked for it?

Whatever the circumstances, God's mercy always seems to be consistent. The granting of mercy depends on God, but the asking depends on us, our self-knowledge and our humility.

Our Special Guest Fr. Victor Warkulwiz, M.S.S. ... will be with us the weekend of September 24-25 to speak about Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration. Fr. Warkulwiz is from the Missionary Priests of the Blessed Sacrament. He will speak to us on the benefits and necessity of Perpetual Adoration in our Parish. Fr. Warkulwiz resides in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. He has taken his message of Perpetual Adoration to several hundred parishes in 47 states, Canada, and elsewhere. Fr. Victor has dedicated himself to visiting parish every weekend where the desire to establish or maintain perpetual Eucharistic Adoration has been expressed. The fruits of his labor have been bountiful and include spiritual renewal within each parish.

Please remember that perpetual adoration in a parish is not just for a day, a week, a month or year. Rather it is for always. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, permanent.

Saint John Paul II said: "Our essential commitment in life is to grow spiritually in the climate of the Holy Eucharist." There is no greater love given to Catholics than Christ present in the Eucharist. Please don't miss Fr. Warkulwiz and his inspiring homily bringing you to a deeper understanding and love of the Blessed Sacrament.

RECONCILIATION True reconciliation is emotional, dramatic, and cleansing. When two people meet heart to heart and work through old hurts, misunderstandings, and careless words, cleansing tears often flow and the encounter ends with an embrace that fills both with the warmth of a love too strong to fade. The readings this weekend assure us of this healthy release that comes with reconciliation. They give us the courage to reach out to someone with whom we need to reconcile ourselves, and give us the courage to ask for forgiveness from God, too. In the reading from Exodus, we see how God refuses again and again to give up on the Israelites. Even though they grow impatient with God and turn to false idols, God still calls them back. Luke's Gospel assures us that God rejoices when we turn away from sin. Paul's letter to Timothy encourages us, like Paul, to look back on our lives and recognize where God's patient mercy has been shown to us. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.
