My friends, we so often find ourselves confronted with conflicting values and demands. Today we ponder how to balance our call to accumulate wealth and material things. We hear that God is aware of both greed and the needs of the poor. Discipleship challenges us to be prudent, wise, focused and balanced in our interaction with money. It's not easy. Keeping our eyes on the final prize is what really matters.

God wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR OTHERS

The Second Vatican Council has called us to envision the Church as the people of God. As a community of believers we are responsible for our brothers and sisters, their salvation, their journey of faith, their physical well-being. Many of the documents of Vatican II and volumes of work since the mid-1960s give us advice, guidelines, and encouragement to take care of one another: the poor, the elderly, the unborn, the broken, the infirm.

Because Vatican II is part of our recent history--indeed many of us were already born--this may strike us as a new and revolutionary idea. But today's readings show us the agelessness of the issue of social justice. Eight hundred years before Christ was born, Amos warned the wealthy not to cheat the poor. In Paul's first letter to Timothy, he encourages all prayers to be for all people; and finally, the Gospel urges the wise use of money. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Our Special Guest Fr. Victor Warkulwiz, M.S.S. ...

will be with us the weekend of September 24-25 to speak about Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration. Fr. Warkulwiz is from the Missionary Priests of the Blessed Sacrament. He will speak to us on the benefits and necessity of Perpetual Adoration in our Parish. Fr. Warkulwiz resides in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. He has taken his message of Perpetual Adoration to several hundred parishes in 47 states, Canada, and elsewhere. Fr. Victor has dedicated himself to visiting parish every weekend where the desire to establish or maintain perpetual Eucharistic Adoration has been expressed. The fruits of his labor have been bountiful and include spiritual renewal within each parish.

Please remember that perpetual adoration in a parish is not just for a day, a week, a month or year. Rather it is for always. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, permanent. Saint John Paul II said: "Our essential commitment in life is to grow spiritually in the climate of the Holy Eucharist." There is no greater love given to Catholics than Christ present in the Eucharist. Please don't miss Fr. Warkulwiz and his inspiring homily bringing you to a deeper understanding and love of the Blessed Sacrament.

Calling all High Schoolers: Come to the Diocesan Youth Rally on Sept. 25th!

This year's H.S. Youth Rally theme is "Thunderous Mercy." Joe is an inspirational speaker and a Catholic hip hop artist from Southern California who says, "I rap what is real to me and God is very real to me. My spiritual poetry is my prayer. It is my way of connecting with God and expressing an energetic message of faith, hope, and love for God's children."

So come join us as we celebrate with Joe and teens from all over the Diocese what it means to have "Thunderous Mercy"! There will be Mass, Reconciliation, a keynote and concert by Joe, and interactive Corporal Works of Mercy.
