Two stories of healing in today's readings have common threads. Both Naaman and the Samaritan are outsiders, judged by some as unworthy of healing. But the faith of each is related to God's healing, and that healing leads to expressions of gratitude. God's gifts are freely given to surprising people in surprising ways. Faith is an essential component.

If we have died with Christ Jesus we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him. - 2 Timothy 2:11-12a

SEEING JESUS WITH NEW EYES...

Come discover anew the Person, Voice and Meaning of Jesus...for his time and ours. Join us Wednesday, October 19, from 6:30 TO 8:15pm, Holy Family Parish Center ( 218 S. Maple - upper level). Presenter is Carolyn Saucier.

Too often our understanding of Jesus is small and domesticated-- even misleading— limited to a “Jesus and me mentality” for comfort and friendship. There is so much more to this compelling and mysterious figure who changed the patterns of the world.

Who was Jesus in the history and culture of ancient Israel? What did he teach through his life and words and miracles? Why did his Kingdom preaching get him into trouble? What good news and liberation did he promise to the people of his day? Why was he killed? What radical freedom does he offer us 2000 years later? What is the gift and depth of Incarnation— as we journey in Advent toward the miracle of Christmas? The Gospels show us the way!

As a bonus for catechists and teachers -there will also be 7 creative ideas for celebrating ADVENT!! R.S.V.P. to Sister Mary by Monday, October 17 at 221-1078. Everyone is welcome to attend!

CSA...The Catholic Stewardship Appeal... Thanking God for the many gifts he has given us, we are obliged to share our gifts with other Catholics of the diocese by donating to the Catholic Stewardship Appeal. Sometimes it's difficult to envision how one pledge can make a difference. However, each gift - no matter what the amount - does make a difference. And it is a sign that we are part of something larger - the local Church known as the Diocese of Jefferson City. Ask the Holy Spirit for guidance as you consider your participation this year in this important annual event.

Our goal for Holy Family is the same as last year - $29,000. All gifts to the Catholic Stewardship Appeal are sent directly to the Diocese.
