God's mercy calls us to repentance. When we judge others for their behavior, no matter how unsavory it is, we need to remember that God's mercy is not just available to us - it's there for all people. Surprising things happened to Zacchaeus, the maligned tax collector who looked out for Jesus. God's mercy is so much bigger than ours.

GOD IS WITH US

The book of Wisdom tells us that the spirit of God is in all things. What a wonderful thought, and what a wonderful image to keep in front of us as we travel down life's road. For if the path is revealed in the treading, it's good to know that God is with us--and all around us--every step of the way. But Paul knows that this divine presence is not timid. Instead, God calls out to us, and Paul prays that we, along with the Thessalonians, might be made worthy of that call. And who knows more about God's call than Zacchaeus, the tax collector? Jesus called him out of a tree, for goodness' sake. Or perhaps more correctly, as we reflect upon the end of today's Gospel reading, for heaven's sake. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

STEWARDSHIP IN ACTION... When we speak of “stewardship” in our parish the faculty & staff at Holy Family School try on a daily basis to help our students know what it means to “give back” with their talents, treasure and time. As a wonderful example we have two seniors in High School who are Eagle Scouts and graduates of Holy Family School who gave back generously. They came to Sister Betty and explained their learning experience while at Holy Family School and asked if they might help our school in a project they were interested in doing for the school. Sister Betty was thrilled to hear what these young men were interested in doing for our school.

Joseph Sheffer wanted to revitalize our Pre-K playground because of the new full day program. So Joe went about looking at all that he needed to do to make this area safe, fun and rejuvenated for our students. Joe did a great job of power-washing equipment, cleaning up tree stumps, making the area safe and adding some lattice panels and plants. It is a great, fun place for our students to play.

Jordan Held wanted to make a game for our students he loved as a youngster in our larger playground. He wanted to create a sturdy, safe, well-positioned game students could play. Jordan’s goal: create a “Connect-4” game for the students! What a colorful game that makes students think and strategize together while playing! Sister Betty loves the bright colors too.

Giving back is what these young men kept telling they wanted to do to thank the teachers/school for their great education. We are deeply grateful for these two young men for their time, talent and treasure for how they enhanced our parish school. Leaders, already in our community.

Thank you to Julie & John Sheffer, parents of Joe AND thank you to Linda & Phil Held, parents of Jordan, along with his sister, Lauren. A parent’s guidance is priceless!! Holy Family School is deeply grateful for your leadership in “giving back.”
