Today's readings make even more difficult demands on us regarding our behavior as Christians. We live in a culture where there is so much rhetoric about protecting oneself and one's property, about guns and gated communities. How do we reconcile this with Jesus' call to turn the other cheek and love one's enemy? What does it take to embrace these teachings, which many of us - quite honestly - find foolish?

Be holy, for I, the LORD, your God, am holy. - Leviticus 19:2b

Carolyn Saucier presents CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP Your life is about to change: called to reconversion and rebuilding as disciples If you were on trial for being a disciple of Jesus what evidence would there be to convict you? Discipleship is core to our dual mandate from Jesus: "Come follow me and then go make disciples of all nations." Come reflect with us on this life-long call of Jesus! Wednesday, February 22 at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall. PLEASE SIGN UP AT THE CHURCH ENTRANCES OR CALL THE PARISH OFFICE BY Feb. 19 TO RESERVE A SEAT. FOR QUESTIONS CALL SISTER MARY at 221-1078. You may park in the Lutheran Church lot next Wednesday! Thanks Pastor Stoerger!

STEWARDSHIP... "But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..."

Matthew 5:44

Love your enemies, easier said than done, no doubt. But, remember, the foundation of stewardship is prayer. When we are in close communication with God, it opens our heart and it turns our attention away from "me" and moves it towards God and others. It allows us to have a little more empathy for "our enemy". When we pray for others, even "our enemies", maybe it softens their hearts as well.
