Today's hopeful readings are full of promise. These words speak to people coming out of exile, to Jesus' followers who are burdened, to those struggling to live as early Christians. Living in a time when we are burdened by information, negative or misleading, or disinformation as well as serious divisions and threats, we, too need encouragement. We seek honorable leaders and words we can trust. Do we allow God's word to be a true source of good news for us? What would happen if we allowed ourselves to accept Jesus' invitation to come to him for rest?

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." - Matthew 55:6

DIOCESAN MISSION COLLECTION

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

I had heart surgery in May. I was fortunate to be under the care of wonderful medical professionals. I was so grateful to have countless people praying for me. I could feel the mercy of God pouring over me.

I mention this in light of the theme for our Diocesan Mission Collection: “To announce the mercy of God, the beating heart of the Gospel.”

As Pope Francis explains it, mission carries mercy to the far corners of the world -- reaching the poor, the sick, the forgotten and the dispossessed.

Many of them do not have access to basic health care, much less skilled surgeons. Many of them have never known the grace of a faith community that cares for them.

Our work of mercy provides meals to hundreds of hungry kids and elderly. It starts schools in India and supports medical care for the poor in Peru and the Philippines.

God’s mercy is spiritual as well as material. People need to belong to a community, need to be able to worship, work, and walk with each other. This is why we continue to support parishes in Peru and help start new ones in India and the Philippines.

Anyone who has experienced the mercy of God wants to share this life-giving gift. We have a chance to do that next week in the Diocesan Mission Collection. Be a part of the “beating heart of the Gospel.”

*Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend John R. Gaydos
Bishop of Jefferson City*

The annual Diocesan Mission Collection will be taken up in our parish next weekend, July 15-16. This collection supports diocesan mission efforts in Peru and assists the mission Church in critical areas around the world. Please be generous!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION The premier poet of the English language, Geoffrey Chaucer, introduced one of his most beloved characters, the "Wife of Bath," by this telling remark: "Husbands at church door she had five." Four times widowed, she was setting off on a pilgrimage, notably without number five. The church door is a curious detail, pointing to the fourteenth-century wedding custom of marrying on the porch of the parish church. The goal was to give maximum publicity to the consent of the groom and bride, and so consent was moved from the bride's home to a public venue. The priest would stand in the doorway and begin by sprinkling the couple with holy water. He needed to make sure they weren't too closely related and give them some instruction. He would direct the groom to pay the bride's family a dowry, and then announce the monetary amounts to the interested passersby. Only then would the guests enter the church for the wedding Mass, during which the bride and groom would hold lighted candles. The gradual move from home to church and the shift from the bride's father to the priest's authority helped to protect the freedom of brides who weren't quite as confident as the Wife of Bath.
