Today we are presented more insights about God, the kingdom of heaven, and what is expected of us. The overwhelming message is that God is all about power, justice, lenience, kindness and most of all, love. We are offered endless opportunities to hear and respond to God, but nothing matches God's efforts to claim us. God chooses us, sends help on our behalf, and invites us into a reign of love and peace beyond all measure.

Those who are just must be kind. - Wisdom 12:19

THE MERCY, POWER, AND LOVE OF GOD

The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses! God is mighty, but lenient to all. God's power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God's people must govern in the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God's might, but is a direct result of God's primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice with love and clemency? Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God's mercy, power, and love.

SHOES FOR SOULS

We are nearing the end of our collection for Fr. Dandi Bermejo's mission project in the Philippines.

We are collecting new or slightly used athletic shoes and work shoes, preferably in children and smaller adult sizes (please no snow shoes (boots), high heels, etc.) continuing through the month of July. Boxes are at the entrances to church for your donations. This week and next week are the final collection dates. Thanks to all who have donated!

DOUGLASS COMMUNITY CARE CLOSET... Thanks to everyone who has donated toiletry and household cleaning supplies for the Care Closet at Douglass Community Services. Barrels listing suggested items are at the entrances to church. Toiletry items include: shampoo, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes, toilet paper, adult diapers and feminine hygiene products.

Cleaning supplies needed: laundry detergent, all-purpose cleaners, sponges, dishwashing liquid and paper towels. The Care Closet was started last year to complement the emergency food pantry with other much-needed items.

As with our shoe collection, we are down to the final two weeks of this collection, so please bring your items next weekend if possible. Thanks again for your generosity!

MEN'S WHITE HOUSE RETREAT

The White House Retreat this year is Monday September 25th through Thursday September 28, 2017. The White House Retreat is located on Christopher Drive in St Louis. The White House offers a private room with bath, coupled with family-style meals that are tasty and well prepared. Coffee & Tea are available throughout the day. You can stroll leisurely about the 80 acres of beautifully landscaped grounds high on the bluffs of the Mississippi and rich Illinois River bottom farmlands to the east. Enjoy an hour's general recreation each evening, if you wish, because the whole experience is one of renewal of the body, mind and spirit. You listen and pray, apply your reflections to your life situation. You make the well know spiritual exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola. You listen to a series of instructive but informal talks in the Chapel by the Retreat Director, a skilled and experienced spiritual guide. You may consult privately with him or any of the Jesuit Fathers.

Treat yourself to a White House Retreat. You'll say what thousands of others have said..."the most quiet, peaceful and happy days of my life"... "I am profoundly grateful for the spiritual help and uplift" If you would like to attend the retreat, please contact Frank Janes, 573-248-3505 or Spike Ehrhardt, 573-248-4374 or Jack Immegart 573-221-7691 or email: Frankjanes39@yahoo.com or spike@ehrhardtprop.com

VOCATIONS... For the Church: That she may be given good ground for hope in an outpouring of vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

As St. Paul tells us today, The spirit comes to the aid of our weakness, Consider the priesthood, because God does not call the equipped, He equips the called.

SUNDAY SOUNDBITE

“Earthy” images and a practical message—that’s today’s Gospel. Jesus tells several parables: two of them dealing with gardening, and one dealing with baking.

A gardener finds weeds in among his crop, and suspects the work of an enemy. The verdict: wait until harvest to sort things out. The tiny mustard seed grows to become a great, sheltering tree. A woman makes bread, and uses just a little yeast to make the dough rise.

For the gardeners and bakers in the congregation today, proclaiming and understanding this Gospel may be easier than for us without a green thumb, who don’t know their way around the kitchen. What would Jesus talk about if he were preaching in person today in your parish or mine?

Somehow, I think he’d look around the church and imagine the world outside those walls. He’d consider the problems facing the parish, and the struggles of Christians to witness in a largely secular world, which nevertheless hungers for a message of hope. And then he’d choose imagery that would fit the situation.

Lacking a personal appearance by Christ as guest preacher this Sunday, we must stay with the Gospel. Try to listen carefully, and find there the message of hope: that no matter what obstacles it faces, no matter how small the efforts of Christians seem, the Kingdom of God will flourish. - Fr. Greg Friedman

Franciscan Father Greg Friedman is the former host of American Catholic Radio.
