Conflicts are often hard to resolve and can be even more challenging in the church. Scripture tells us that this has always been true. Today, conflicts are often subject to immediate publicity and the process of healing may be harder than ever. But today's readings confirm that the ultimate root of reconciliation is always the same. If we love and respect one another, the steps to healing are made possible...even easier.

If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. - Matthew 18:19

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

College Care Packages Let's remind our college students, especially our recent college freshman, that Holy Family is thinking of them, supporting them from a far, and praying for them, by sending care packages! There will be a collection tub in the back of church for non-perishable items like granola bars, cereal bars, microwave popcorn, mac-n-cheese, candy, cookies, gum, etc. We'd also like to include prayer cards, personal faith messages, etc.

If you want our faith community to send your college student a care package, please put their name and address on an envelope w/$5 (to help w/shipping cost) in the collection baskets by Sept 24th so we can mail them the first of Oct! Or you can directly give it to Terra Murphy. Thank you and God Bless!

A free will offering will be taken for the local pregnancy care center.

RELIGION DEFINED "I do not know how philosophers may ultimately define religion; but from Micah to James it has been defined as service to one's fellow human rendered by following the great rule of justice and mercy, of wisdom and righteousness." -Theodore Roosevelt
