Our readings continue to be rich in imagery about God, what God is like, what God does for us, and how God invites us. The images are ancient, but they still speak to those of us with these questions: Why are we here? What do we seek from God? What are our beliefs? What do we have in common with our ancestors? What does it mean to be called? As we listen to these readings, there are wonderful questions to challenge us as well as answers to deepen our faith.

I can do all things in him who strengthens me. - Philippians 4:13

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each October, the celebration of World Mission Sunday leads us to the heart of our Christian faith – leads us to mission, as Pope Francis explains in his message for this year’s celebration on October 22.

The collection is truly a global effort for the entire Church. It is a central moment each year to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe -- more than half the territory of the globe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God’s love and mercy, His hope and peace.

World Mission Sunday and the Society for the Propagation of the Faith encourage an ongoing formative relationship for mission, inspired by the words of our chief missionary, Pope Francis.

I invite all of us to see World Mission Sunday as a special moment of encounter with the Pope’s missions throughout the world. Considering the priests, religious and lay leaders who, day in and day out, witness to the Gospel and serve the poor, will, as Pope Francis says, “enable the missionary heart of Christian communities to join in prayer, testimony of life and communion of goods, in responding to the vast and pressing needs of evangelization.”

As I remain grateful for your generosity, I ask your full support as you are able, through prayer and sacrifice, on World Mission Sunday and throughout the year.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John R. Gaydos

Bishop of Jefferson City
