June 7, 2015

As God's covenant with Israel was ratified by the blood of animals, God's new covenant with us has been ratified by the blood of Christ. We remember and celebrate that covenant every time we participate in the Eucharist.

It is that profound sign of a love that we celebrate today. Christ gives himself for us and calls us to give ourselves for one another.

BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

The cup of salvation I will take up, and I will call upon the name of the LORD. - Psalm 116:13

MARK YOUR CALENDARS... Sunday, June 28th at 1 p.m. - Deacon Simeon's First Mass followed by a Parish Carry-In Meal . If you or you and your family are planning to attend, please email the parish:

miller@myhollyfamily.com or call us at 221-1078. Plan to bring a salad (any type), vegetable (any kind), or dessert to share and let us know the number of people who will be attending!

THANKSGIVING

The word "thanksgiving" most often calls to our mind the holiday in November. But as early as the middle of the second century Justin Martyr referred to the blessed bread and wine of the Lord's Supper as "food we call 'thanksgiving' " (in Greek eucharistia).

The Thanksgiving we celebrate in the autumn is at times marked by a sort of proud societal self-congratulation and the consumption of food until we sink into an inert stupor.

The "thanksgiving" that we call our Eucharist is just the opposite: we are led to it by an acknowledgment of our own failings; we remember our humble place in the scheme of things by giving praise to God alone. While the food of Christ's body and blood fills our spiritual hungers, it also creates in us a greater hunger. We are not sent to our spiritual sofas to let the Lord's Supper settle; we are sent to be living signs of that thanksgiving for the world by looking out for the poor and powerless, feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, speaking out against the self-righteous. In short, the hunger created by our doing in remembrance of Christ must lead us to living in remembrance of him.

THANK YOU!!! I would like to thank all of you for your generous support of the Helping Hands Medical Mission to San Cristobal Mexico. We had 24 missionaries from around the country including 4 doctors, 6 nurses, a pharmacist, a priest, and volunteers. Together we were able to do door-to-door evangelization, and we held 6 medical clinics in San Cristobal and surrounding Mayan villages in the mountains. We treated 919 patients and touched the lives of thousands more. Your contributions of eye glasses, shoes, and medicines were gratefully received by the people we served. Your monetary contribution was donated to buy prescription medicine for the trip. Your prayers helped make the mission successful. Thanks again for your support of this mission. —Dr. Eric Meidl

GOD'S WORD TODAY

Today's Gospel tells the story of the preparation of the place where Jesus and his disciples were to eat the Last Supper. During that meal, the new covenant in Christ's blood was established as an everlasting covenant that we celebrate to this day. Today is a good day to ask ourselves just how intentional we are when preparing to celebrate the Mass. All too often, our coming to this place becomes routine and the Mass seems to pass us by. What an opportunity we miss when this happens! When we celebrate the Eucharist, we are joined to Christ, proclaiming and participating in his death and sharing in the promise of his new life. The gift of today's solemnity gives us the chance to re-examine our own preparedness for Mass. As today's Gospel is proclaimed, let us remember that it is at the table of the Eucharist that we can truly find transformation. Here at this table we taste newness of life.
