Israel slowly came to understand that God is not the source of evil and death, but of goodness and life. The Book of Wisdom affirms that God made creatures to live. In today's Gospel, Jesus heals the hemorrhaging woman and raises the daughter of Jairus. We who follow Jesus are called to live as people of goodness, justice and life.

CONGRATULATIONS TO FATHER SIMEON ETONU

Holy Family Congratulates Fr. Simeon as he celebrates his first Mass at our parish. We wish you well in your first assignment as a priest for the Diocese of Jefferson City. We thank God for you and send our love, prayers and blessings with you as you humbly serve the people in your care!

GOD'S WORD TODAY

Today we meet two familiar people in the Gospel: Jairus the synagogue official and the woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. When we hear their stories we usually marvel at Jesus' miracles of curing her and raising Jairus' daughter from the dead. This week, listen for something else. These two people were people of tremendous faith. They approached Jesus, almost fully expecting that he would help them. This kind of trust in the Lord Jesus is a wonderful example for us. Let us pray that we will be unafraid to approach the Lord in our need, trusting that he will come to our assistance. From Saint Margaret Sunday Missal, copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Company

YOUR HELP NEEDED

Parishioners are reminded to look around the area where you are sitting after Mass and clean-up any mess you have created. All missals, hymnals and books that belong in the book racks should be put back in their place before you leave church. Pick up any food, water bottles, cups, cans, Kleenex, bulletins, etc., particularly if you brought it into church. Our Heavenly Dusters group works very hard each week to keep our church neat and clean. Please do your part to make sure our Lord's house remains that way.

WE ASK ETERNAL REST O LORD FOR THE SOULS OF: Marilyn White, sister-in-law of

ON LIFE..."A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea rise to God, the Creator and lover of life, from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer."

– Pope John Paul II, The Gospel of Life (Evangelium Vitae), n. 100.

Evangelization is always a two-way street. We might think that we're the ones with the message, with the answers, with the Good News, and yet time and time again we discover that we learn as much from the people we're with as we had when we began the conversation. - Pope Francis, "Call To Joy"
