Jesus was not alone in his life and ministry but called God his Father and called upon the Spirit to sustain him. He promised us a share in these relationships. The God we call Trinity is present to support us, as individuals and as a community. Just as Jesus needed community, so do we.

GOOD NEIGHBOR PROJECT NEWS FROM DOUGLASS COMMUNITY SERVICES, INC.

Douglass Community Services operates an emergency food pantry which is open Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m. - 11:45 a.m. Well over 100 families are served each month, in addition to another 300+ families on our monthly USDA distribution day. Our community has been and continues to be very generous in supporting the pantry through food drives and monetary contributions.

In addition to food, families served by Douglass have a critical need for both toiletries and household cleaning supplies. Douglass is adding a "Care Closet" to be composed of toiletries and cleaning supplies - to enhance our emergency food pantry.

Beginning the month of June, Good Neighbor Project, along with Douglass will begin collecting toiletries or cleaning supplies. Suggested items and other information will be provided on the barrels and in the bulletin.

Holy Family's food collection months for Douglass are July and November. Thank you in advance for your care and concern for the needy families in our area.

INVITING CATHOLICS HOME... We are beginning a new program in our parish where we reach out to those who, for whatever reason, have fallen away from the Catholic faith. Called Inviting Catholics Home, our Stewardship Council is working on putting the program together. Under the leadership of Chuck & Judy Spratt and others, we hope to be able to bring back some of our fallen away members. We invite any of you who would like to serve with Chuck & Judy to please give them a call at 573-406-0725. Plans are underway to form a team for this special ministry.

BOOKS FOR FREE... Fr. Mike is letting go of some of the many religious books he has and everyone is welcome to come down to St. Michael's Hall to look through them and pick up whatever you want for free. Some of the selections are from the late Fr. Pat Pierceall's religious book collection as well. There are books on prayer, spirituality and various Church topics. Please feel free to check out these selections after any Mass and see what is available.

MEMORIAL DAY MASS... There will be a Memorial Day Mass at 9 a.m. on Monday, May 30th in Holy Family Cemetery. Please bring a lawn chair and join us. If it is raining, Mass will be in the chapel. Reminder - the Parish Office is closed on Memorial Day!

Claiming the Holy Trinity

The day after Pentecost Sunday, we re-entered the “green days” of ordinary time. These are the days, weeks, and months when we are given a breathing space to allow the seeds of faith planted within us during our celebrations of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, and Pentecost to begin to take root and grow within us, enriching our lives and allowing us to be transformed by the mysteries we celebrated. In this sense, these days are, in fact, extraordinary time—a time to reflect, remember, and to renew our commitment to live as disciples of the Risen Lord.

Of course, on Pentecost Sunday we recalled how the Holy Spirit came to Mary, the apostles, and the holy women in the upper room (Acts 1:13-14). But part of the wonder of that first Pentecost was the unity—the communion—created by the Holy Spirit, who brought those faith-filled women and men together as the church. This was symbolized by the fact that diverse people from different lands, who spoke different languages, heard those first Christians speaking in a language that everyone was able to understand. The Holy Spirit had empowered the church to praise God and proclaim the good news with one voice! Individuals who had been isolated by their own fear and uncertainty had entered into a new relationship with one another, drawn together by nothing less than the power of God.

This Pentecost-wonder carried through into our ordinary time celebration of the Most Holy Trinity. It’s almost as if the church brought together, in a single solemn feast, the creative, saving, and sanctifying work that we celebrate in all the other great feasts of the church year. But Trinity Sunday also gives us a chance to recall that the God whom we adore is “one God in the Trinity and the Trinity in unity” (from The Catechism of the Catholic Church, 266).

This truth about God invites us to consider how all of our relationships are reflections of that unique and dynamic relationship that exists within God—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. And the great gift for us is that we are constantly being invited to be part of that relationship, to live in the love of God.

Reflecting on this, the spiritual writer Henri Nouwen wrote that he was convinced that “most human suffering comes from broken relationships. Anger, jealousy, resentment, and feelings of rejection all find their source in conflict between people who yearn for unity, community, and a deep sense of belonging. By claiming the Holy Trinity as home for our relational lives, we claim the truth that God gives us what we most desire and offers us the grace to forgive each other for not being perfect in love” (Behold the Beauty of the Lord).

It is this “claiming the Holy Trinity” that Saint Paul spoke of in his Letter to the Romans: “We have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand . . . because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us” (5:1b-2, 5).

All of this having been said, we have to accept that human language fails us when we try to describe or explain the nature of the Trinity or how we share in that divine relationship. It is the dynamic life and love of the Trinity itself, and our experience of the Trinity—that “claiming the Holy Trinity”—that makes it real for us.

In the end, our celebration of the Most Holy Trinity is an invitation for us to continue to move beyond our selves. The feast reminds us of the powerful ways that God remains at work in the world: in the ongoing act of creation, in the perduring gifts of healing and redemption, and the life-giving Spirit that inspires faith, hope, and love. This is something extraordinary to remember and celebrate each and every day of ordinary time.

PRAYER O most Holy Trinity - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore thee profoundly. I offer thee the most Precious Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ present in all the tabernacles of the world in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges, and indifference by which He is offended. By the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg the conversion of poor sinners.

- The angel of Fatima’s prayer to the Most Holy Trinity.
