June 19, 2016

Jesus asks us today: "Who do you say that I am?" He already knows the answer. He wants to be sure his disciples realize the challenges that are ahead. Do we know the cost of our discipleship? We pray to know - and then choose freely to follow Jesus, who alone can give us life.

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. - Galatians 3:28

FOLLOW IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF CHRIST

The great fifty-day celebration of Easter has concluded, as have the feasts honoring the Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. Last week we began a long stretch of Ordinary Time that will bring us to late November. Saint Paul tells us today that those who are baptized "have clothed yourselves with Christ" (Galatians 3:27). This scripture is echoed in the Church's baptism ritual when we sing, "You have put on Christ, in him you have been baptized." This message is inspiring and sobering at the same time, for in today's Gospel, we get to the heart of what it means to be clothed in Christ. The Lord tells us, "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me" (Luke 9:23). For the next twenty-two weeks we are called to take up the cross and, with Saint Luke as our guide, follow in the footsteps of Christ. - Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

SUNDAY SOUNDBITE...A favorite musical of mine is Les Misérables. I love listening to the story of Jean Valjean, the man who struggles to carve out a life despite many hardships. In the musical he sings at one point, "Who am I?"--reflecting on his need to be honest about his past and his commitment to God.

Today in our Gospel, Jesus asks the same question of his disciples: first, who do people say that he is, then - more personally - "Who do you say that I am?" Jesus answers his questions by acknowledging that he is indeed the Messiah, the Christ sent by God, and by defining that role in his suffering, death and resurrection.

In the second reading, Saint Paul gives us a glimpse of our Christian identity. We belong to Christ. Our nationality or race, our social status, even our gender are distinctions that do not apply to the Christian. Our identity in and with Jesus comes through baptism, and "clothes" us throughout our lives.

"Who am I?" Today as you attend Mass, look around you. If you're prone to making distinctions among people--and we all do--let those differences give way for a while to the common identity we all share with Christ. - Fr. Greg Friedman, with the Sunday Soundbite for St. Anthony Messenger Press, on the web at FranciscanRadio.org.
