In a culture obsessed with strength and success, today's readings are startling. The qualities and behaviors identified in the Beatitudes look nothing like economic, political or social strength. Instead, they appear to demonstrate weakness. Paul tells us that God chose the foolish, the weak, the lowly and despised to shame the wise and the strong. How do the Beatitudes fit with our professional and life-style commitments? How willing are we to engage in the really hard practices? And what would it mean if we don't want to?

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."
- Matthew 5:3

Carolyn Saucier presents CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP

Your life is about to change: called to reconversion and rebuilding as disciples

If you were on trial for being a disciple of Jesus what evidence would there be to convict you? Discipleship is core to our dual mandate from Jesus: "Come follow me and then go make disciples of all nations." We have to become disciples before we can make disciples. But the meaning of "disciple" is too seldom understood and its responsibilities minimized. Come reflect with us on this life-long call of Jesus! Come say "yes" to the hunger of the Spirit within you! Come be a part of invigorating the life of your parish and community through the power of faith! Join the movement from maintenance to mission as disciples.

Wednesday, February 22 at 6:30 in the Parish Hall.

PLEASE SIGN UP AT THE CHURCH ENTRANCES OR CALL THE PARISH OFFICE
BY Feb. 19 TO RESERVE A SEAT. FOR QUESTIONS CALL SISTER MARY 221-1078.

January 29, 2017 • Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

All of today's readings, especially the Gospel passage from Matthew, claim that God honors the poor and the lowly, and promise God's blessing in the Kingdom proclaimed by Jesus. Many of those who encountered Jesus, and later Paul, thought that this talk of the meek inheriting the earth was a lot of foolishness. Isn't it obvious that the "powerful," those with military, economic, and social power, are running things?

Paul seems to say that we must first understand the nature and purpose of power. Because of Christ, the power derived from self-serving human structures will fade sooner or later. Lasting power comes only from God; power that provides care for others and heals divisions between us. Worldly power is of real value, but is to be exercised responsibly, in service only to God's purposes. This is the kind of power that in the end really matters.

The meek and the pure of heart seem to understand this most clearly. Because they are free of the burden of protecting their own power, they may more fully reveal the truth of God's power.

THE NEXT STEP

What might it take to become poor in spirit and pure in heart? Today's Gospel introduces the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew chapters 5 through 7), which explores this in detail. The Sermon suggests that learning to open our hearts to trust in God is fundamental. The sermon serves as a call to enter a journey of learning to place our lives in God's hands.

Consider taking some time to read the entire sermon, in one sitting. Listen for the stirrings of the Spirit. As you read, you might ask what is most reassuring and what is most challenging for you at this time in your life. What invites you to reflect more deeply? What invites you to take action as the next step in your journey?
